Coats and Jackets: Coats and jackets may be worn on the way to & from School but must be removed immediately on entering the School buildings. We do not allow hoodies to be worn at any point in school.

Shoes: All pupils should wear plain black shoes with dark soles and black laces. Black plimsolls are not an acceptable alternative and are strictly not allowed. Boots must not be worn. Black trainers with black laces and no coloured logos on are acceptable. In exceptional cases, alternative footwear will be permitted only if a letter from a doctor can be shown. (Students can wear trainers for PE with minimal logos and colours).

School uniform can be purchased online from the schools partner website <https://www.monkhouse.com>

Acceptable Uniform

These preferred styles are available from the school suppliers, Monkhouse Uniform at the website above or can be brought from Stores like Asda, Tesco, Sainsburys, Primark and other high street retailers. Please only buy straight cut or boot cut.

Unacceptable Uniform

No visible zips or sets of buttons. No skirts/ trousers too tight and too short. No coloured logos on shoes. No trainer colour other than black. No white socks or any other colour allowed other than black.

Mobile Phones: All students will receive a Yondr phone pouch. On entry into school they will lock their Switched off phone inside the pouch. Students will carry the pouch around in their bag with them but will have no access to the phone during the school day.

Upon leaving school students will then unlock the pouch to gain access to their phone. Students will be expected to look after their Yondr pouch, any damage caused to them will be charged for.

Headphones, earphones and smart watches are not allowed in school.
